CITY OF TEMPE COMMISSION ON DISABILITY CONCERNS HONORS STUDENT EMPLOYEES WITH DISABILITIES

Tempe Community Council, the City of Tempe, and the City Commission on Disability Concerns hosted the 15th annual Mayor's Disability Awards Ceremony on Thursday, May 8, 2003. Tempe Mayor Neil Giuliano recognized Outstanding Student Employees, Outstanding Employers of Students, the Employer of the Year and the Adult Employee of the Year.

The 12 student winners are all students in the Tempe Union High School District WorkBridge Program. The WorkBridge program has been a pioneer in Arizona in providing Special Education Students with on-the-job training of appropriate work skills and behaviors. This year's student winners received a plaque and a cash award of $25.00 from the Tri-City Civitans. The student award recipients were:

David Dousette from Corona Del Sol High School;
 Stephanie Fitchet, and Chad Herd from Desert Vista High School;
 Ashley Coleman, Marsha Fountain, Daniel Hughes, Kathy Keliheleua, and Daniel Sanchez from Marcos de Niza High School;
 Kim Erickson-Moen, and Jeremy Gale from Mountain Pointe High School; and Aneesah Hicks, and Vanessa Zampine from Tempe High School.

Additional awards included the Outstanding Employer of Students, given to Safeway at Broadway and Rural; Manager Kevin Scott accepted the award. The Employer of the Year went to Fulton Homes; and Employee of the Year was awarded to Donna Powers for her work as the Transportation Project Coordinator with the Community Forum. Diane Kundrat received the Pride of the City Award for her dedicated service to the Commission on Disability Concerns.
